

Afterschool Summer Program Assistant

The Afterschool Program offers a continuum of high quality services to meet the social, emotional and academic needs of immigrant and refugee youth. Through these services we provide a safe space for youth to be supported and empowered as they progress through school. Bridge Summer Program aims to build a diverse community by connecting children and youth through fun and enriching activities. We are seeking passionate and enthusiastic people to bring their unique skills and personality to the Bridge Summer program.

If you are interested in volunteering with the Summer Program, please fill out your application on our Better Impact page and answer the following questions in the application:

1. Indicate your availability (e.g. Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays or Thursdays available to volunteer).
2. Indicate which session and location you would prefer to be placed in.
